

Revisions to the New York Franchise Act
Proposed 11/10/2009 by the Legislation Subcommittee
of the
Franchise Distribution and Licensing Committee
of the
New York State Bar Association's Business Law Section
Article 33 of the General Business Law

Section 680. ~~Legislative Findings and~~ Declaration of Policy

~~1. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the widespread sale of franchises is a relatively new form of business which has created numerous problems in New York. New York residents have suffered substantial losses where the franchisor or his representative has not provided full and complete information regarding the franchisor-franchisee relationship, the details of the contract between the franchisor and franchisee, the prior business experience of the franchisor, and other factors relevant to the franchise offered for sale.~~

2. It is hereby determined and declared that the offer and sale of franchises, as defined in this article, is a matter affected with a public interest and subject to the supervision of the state, for the purpose of providing prospective franchisees ~~and potential franchise investors~~ with material details of the franchise offering so that they may participate in the franchise system in a manner that may avoid detriment to the public interest and benefit the commerce and industry of the state. Further, it is the intent of this law to prohibit the sale of franchises where such sale would lead to fraud or a likelihood that the franchisor's promises would not be fulfilled.

Under this article, only the subfranchisor shall be considered the "franchisor", to the exclusion of the principal franchisor, if it is the subfranchisor alone which offers and sells franchises to subfranchisees and is entirely responsible for fulfilling all contractual duties and obligations to such franchisees. ~~810.~~ (a) Neither the fact that an application for registration of a franchise disclosure document ~~an offering prospectus~~ under this article has been filed, nor the fact that such registration has become effective, constitutes a finding by the department that any document filed under this article, including the registered franchise disclosure document ~~offering prospectus~~, is true, complete or not misleading. Neither any such fact nor the fact that an exemption is available for a transaction means that the department has passed in any way upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, any person, franchise, or transaction.

(b) It is unlawful to make or cause to be made to any prospective purchaser or offeree a representation inconsistent with paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

~~13. A person shall not offer to sell or sell a franchise in this state on behalf of a franchisor or subfranchisor, except in transactions exempted under this article, unless the franchisor or subfranchisor and the person file a franchise agent's application with the department of law on the form prescribed by the department, and the department issues an order of registration for such person. All such records are subject at any time to reasonable periodic, special, or other examinations by a representative of the department, within or without this state, as the department deems necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of franchisees~~investors~~.

(b) The department may consider the opinions, appraisals, and reports of engineers, appraisers, or other experts which may be presented by an applicant or any interested party, on any question of fact concerning or affecting the franchises proposed to be offered and sold. In

The experts' cost of travel and lodging relating to such investigation, and the costs of experts' fees, shall be borne by the applicant and shall be paid before effectiveness of its registration, provided that the applicant shall have agreed in writing with the department to bear such costs and fees, or shall have had the opportunity to establish that no good cause exists for such investigation or expenditure, or shall have himself furnished the desired information to the department.

(c) If information that the department deems necessary relating to the franchise is requested by the department and is not furnished by the applicant, or the department deems information submitted to be unreliable or substantially incomplete, the department may investigate any or all matters concerning or affecting such franchise. The costs of all travel and lodging expenses relating to investigations outside of this state shall be borne by the applicant and shall be paid before effectiveness of its registration.

~~1145~~. The department may by rule require the filing and approval prior to use of any pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, or other sales literature or advertising communication addressed to or intended for distribution to prospective franchisees.

Sec. 688. Investigations

1. Whenever it shall appear to the department ~~of law~~, either upon complaint or otherwise, that any person has violated any provision of this article, the department:

(a) may make such investigations within or outside of this state as it deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated any provision of this article or any rule or regulation hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this article or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder, and

(b) may require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the attorney general determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated.

2. The costs of all out of state travel and lodging expenses relating to investigations by the department of persons who appear to the department to have violated any provision of this article shall be borne by such persons upon a judicial determination that said persons have committed unlawful and fraudulent acts or practices, as defined in this article, or so much thereof as is deemed proper by the court.

3. The department is empowered to subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under oath before it or a court of record or a judge or justice thereof, and require the production of any books or papers which it deems relevant or material to the inquiry. Such power of subpoena and examination shall not abate or terminate by reason of any action or proceeding brought by the department under this article.

4. (a) No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing a document or record, in obedience to the subpoena of the department or in a proceeding instituted by the department, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture; but a person may not be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty of forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after validly claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that the person testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying. The department shall compel such testimony or the production of such evidence only after notifying and consulting with any appropriate local prosecuting authorities.

(b) No person shall be excused from attending such inquiry pursuant to the mandate of a subpoena, or from producing a paper or book, or from being examined or required to answer a question, on the ground of failure of tender or payment of a witness fee and/or mileage, unless at the time of such appearance or production, as the case may be, such witness makes demand for such payment as a condition precedent to the offering of testimony or production required by the subpoena and unless such payment is not thereupon made. The provision for payment of witness fees and/or mileage shall not apply to any officer, director, salesman or other person in the employ of any person whose conduct or practice is being investigated.

5. If a person subpoenaed to attend such inquiry fails to obey the command of a subpoena without reasonable cause, or if a person in attendance upon such inquiry shall without reasonable cause refuse to be sworn or to be examined or to answer a question or to produce and permit reasonable examination of a book or paper when ordered so to do by the officer conducting such inquiry, or if a person fails to perform any act required hereunder to be performed, he shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor punishable as provided in section six hundred ninety of this article.

6. It shall be the duty of all public officers, their deputies, assistants, subordinates, clerks or employees and all other persons to render and furnish to the department or other designated officer when requested all information and assistance in their possession or within their power with respect to all matters being investigated by the department under this article. Any officer participating in such inquiry and any person examined as a witness upon such inquiry who shall disclose to any person other than his attorney or the department the name of any witness examined or any other information obtained upon such inquiry except as directed by the department shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor punishable as provided in section six hundred ninety of this article.

Sec. 689. Action by the Department of Law

1. Whenever the department shall believe from evidence satisfactory to it that any person has engaged in or is engaged in or is about to engage in any practice or transaction heretofore referred to as and declared to be an unlawful or a fraudulent practice, it may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the people of the state of New York against such person and any other person theretofore concerned in or in any way participating in such unlawful or fraudulent practice, to enjoin such person or persons from continuing such unlawful and fraudulent practice or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof or, if the department should believe from such evidence that such person actually has or is engaged in any such unlawful or fraudulent practice, it may include in such action an application to enjoin permanently such person and such other person as may have been or may be concerned with or in any way participating in such unlawful or fraudulent practice, from selling or offering for sale within or from this state as franchisor, franchise ~~seller~~~~sales agent, franchise salesman,~~ or a principal executive officer or director~~a principal~~ thereof, any franchise offered or to be offered or sold, or from continuing any such practice. In said action an order or a judgment may be entered awarding the relief applied for or so much thereof as the court may deem proper. Upon a showing by the department in its application for a permanent injunction hereunder that the defendant named in the action or an officer thereof has refused to be sworn or to be examined or to answer a material question or to produce a book or paper relevant to the inquiry when duly ordered to do so by the officer or judge duly conducting an inquiry into the subject matter forming the basis of the application for such injunction, such refusal shall be prima facie proof that such defendant is or has engaged in an unlawful or fraudulent practice as set forth in such application and a permanent injunction may issue from the Supreme Court without further showing by the department. In an action brought under this section the Court may award to the plaintiff a sum not in excess of ten thousand dollars for each defendant as an additional allowance.

2. Upon a showing by the department, in an application for an injunction, that any person engaged in the offer or sale of a franchise in this state has ever been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction in any state or county of any felony or of any other criminal offense by any such court, whether or not constituting a felony, involving franchises, securities or subdivided land, the Supreme Court after a hearing may issue a permanent injunction awarding the relief applied for, or so much thereof as the Court may deem proper, against such person shown to have been so convicted, in the form and manner provided for in subdivision one of this section in the case of one who actually has or is engaged in any unlawful or fraudulent practice.

3. If a franchise is offered or sold within the state of New York by a non-resident person and such non-resident person has not filed pursuant to laws heretofore or hereafter existing the designation of a person upon whom process against him or it may be served or the designation of the secretary of state as such person, pursuant to section thirteen hundred four of the business corporation law or other laws heretofore or hereafter existing, or in lieu thereof, an instrument in writing duly acknowledged and filed in the office of the secretary of state designating the secretary of state as the person upon whom may be served any subpoena, subpoena duces tecum or other process directed to such nonresident person and issued in any investigation, examination or proceeding pending or about to be instituted under and pursuant to the provisions of this article, the department may serve a notice upon such nonresident person by mailing the same in a securely sealed postpaid wrapper addressed to such nonresident person at its or his last known place of business or residence, and may in such notice require that such nonresident person furnish a written statement under oath, as required in said notice, giving the information therein specified relating to the franchise offered, to be offered or sold in the state of New York by such nonresident person or, in the alternative, that such nonresident person shall appear within a reasonable time from the date of mailing such notice at a designated place within this state for examination and shall produce at the time and place of such examination such books and papers of such nonresident person as may be designated in such notice.

If such non-resident person shall fail to appear pursuant thereto or to produce the books and papers required thereby to be produced, or shall refuse to submit to examination or to answer any proper question, the proof of such failure or refusal shall constitute prima facie evidence that the offer or sale of a franchise by such non-resident person constitutes a fraudulent practice and may in the discretion of the court be treated as a sufficient basis for a permanent injunction against the continuance of such fraudulent practice.

4. In any action brought by the department as provided in this article, the court at any stage of the proceedings may appoint a receiver of any and all property derived by the defendant or defendants or any of them by means of any such unlawful or fraudulent practice, including also all property with which such property has been commingled if such property cannot be identified in kind because of such commingling, together with any or all books of account and papers relating to the same. The judgment entered in such action may provide that such receiver shall take title to any or all such property and books of account and papers relating to the same and liquidate such property or any part thereof for the benefit of all persons intervening in the said action and establishing an interest in such property. The judgment may also provide that all such property, the title to or interest in which has not been established in such action by intervenors or otherwise by due process to be in a person or persons other than defendant or defendants, shall be returned to the defendant or defendants as their interest may appear. Such receiver shall be subject to all the duties of receivers in civil actions as far as practicable except that such provisions relating to commissions or compensation of receivers shall not be applicable to receivers appointed pursuant to this section, but such commissions or compensations shall be fixed by the court in any amount which it may determine to be just and equitable. In any action brought by the department as provided in this article the court may grant such other and further relief as may be proper.

5. Whenever the department has determined to commence an action under this article, it may present to any justice of the supreme court, before beginning such action, an application in writing for an order directing the person or persons mentioned in the application to appear before the justice of the supreme court or referee designated in such order and answer such questions as may be put to them or to any of them, or to produce such papers, documents and books concerning the alleged unlawful or fraudulent practices to which the action which the department has determined to bring relates, and it shall be the duty of the justice of the supreme court to whom such application for the order is made to grant such application. The application for such order may simply show upon information and belief that the testimony of such person or persons is material and necessary. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules, relating to an application for an order for the examination of witnesses before the commencement of an action and the method of proceeding on such examination, shall not apply except as herein prescribed. The order shall be granted by the justice of the supreme court to whom the application has been made with such preliminary injunction or stay as may appear to such justice to be proper and expedient and shall specify the time when and place where the witnesses are required to appear. The justice or referee may adjourn such examination from time to time and witnesses must attend accordingly. The testimony of each witness must be subscribed by him and must be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which such order for examination is filed.

6. The order for such examination must be signed by the justice making it, and service of a copy thereof with an endorsement by the department to the effect that the person named therein is required to appear and be examined at the time and place before the justice and referee specified in such endorsement, shall be sufficient notice for the attendance of witnesses. Such endorsement may contain a clause requiring such person to produce at such examination all books, papers and documents in his possession or under his control relating to the subject of such examination. The order shall be served upon the person named in ~~such~~the endorsement ~~aforsaid~~ by delivering to and leaving with it or him a certified copy thereof, endorsed as above provided, subject to the payment of witness fees and mileage as and when provided to be paid by paragraph (b) of subdivision four of section six hundred eighty-eight of this article in connection with attendance pursuant to subpoenas authorized to be issued under ~~such~~said section. Service of such an order may also be served under section six hundred eighty-six of this article in cases falling thereunder.

7. The referee appointed as provided in this article possesses all the powers and is subject to all the duties of a referee appointed in a civil action, so far as practicable, and may punish for contempt a witness duly served with the papers as prescribed in this article for non-attendance or refusal to be sworn or to testify or to produce books, papers and documents according to the direction of ~~such~~the endorsement ~~aforesaid~~ in the same manner and to the same extent as a referee to hear, try and determine an issue of fact or law.

8. Any person against whom a permanent injunction has been granted under the provisions of this article may apply to the supreme court at any time upon at least sixty days notice to the department for an order dissolving such injunction or modifying the same upon such terms and conditions as the court deems necessary or desirable. Such application for dissolution or modification of such injunction shall contain a recitation of the facts and circumstances which caused the granting of the injunction; the occupation and employment of the person making the application and his financial remuneration therefrom since the time the injunction was granted; his net worth at the time of the application and the source thereof; together with any other facts bearing upon the reasonableness of the application and the character of the applicant as may enable the court to issue an order that will properly dispose of such application in the interest of justice. A copy of such application together with copies of any other papers in support thereof shall be served upon the department at least sixty days prior to the return date thereof. In addition thereto the applicant shall file with the court a good and sufficient surety bond in the sum of one thousand dollars guaranteeing that he will pay all costs and expenses of an investigation by the department of such applicant and the statements and claims alleged in the application together with any further investigation which the department may deem necessary or desirable to determine whether it should consent to the application, oppose the same, or make such other recommendations to the court as in its opinion are desirable to be included in any modification of such injunction. Should it appear in the course of such investigation by the department that said sum is not sufficient, the department may apply to the court by usual notice of motion or order to show cause for an increase in the amount of security or further surety bond necessary to fully pay all of the costs of the investigation and the court may require such further bond as the situation requires to fully pay the costs and expenses of the investigation. Upon the completion of such investigation, the department may file an answer to such application setting forth such facts as are pertinent to the determination by the court of the matter before it and whether said injunction should be dissolved, modified or continued in whole or in part and what conditions, if any, shall be attached to any dissolution or modification of said injunction. After a hearing upon such application and after any further investigation, proof or testimony which the court may desire has been offered, or at any adjourned dates thereof, the court may make a final order dissolving the permanent injunction or modifying the same upon such terms and conditions as in its opinion are just and desirable, or in its discretion may deny the application. Such order shall contain a direction that the applicant pay to the department the costs and expenses of the investigation in connection with the proceeding, and any judgment entered thereon may be enforced directly against the surety on the bond. The court shall grant no temporary or other relief from the injunction in force pending a final determination of such application. No application under this subdivision shall be entertained:

(a) in any case where the applicant has been convicted of a felony or a crime that would be a felony if committed in the state of New York since the issuance of the injunction, nor

(b) in any case where the injunction was granted incident to a felony, or the applicant has been convicted at any time of any felony involving franchises which are the subject matter of this article. Nor shall anything contained in this subdivision be construed to deny to or interfere with the power of the department to bring any other action or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the applicant at any time.

9. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules shall apply to all actions brought under this article except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 690. Violations and Penalties

Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this article or any rule or regulation issued thereunder shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Sec. 691. Civil Remedies

1. A person who offers or sells a franchise in violation of section six hundred eighty-three, six hundred eighty-four or six hundred eighty-seven of this article is liable to the person purchasing the franchise ~~for damages and, if such violation is willful and material,~~ for rescission, with interest ~~at six percent per year~~ from the date of purchase at an annual interest rate set forth in or determined in accordance with rules or regulations promulgated by the department, and if such violation is willful and material, for damages, in each instance along with ~~and~~ reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

2. A person may not file or maintain suit under this section if the franchisee or such person received a written offer before suit, and at a time when he owned the franchise, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at an annual rate set forth in or determined in accordance with rules or regulations promulgated by the department ~~six percent per year~~ from the date of payment, less the amount of income earned by the franchisee from the franchise, conditioned only upon tender by the person of all items received by him for the consideration and not sold, and failed to accept the offer within thirty days of its receipt, provided that the offering documents are submitted to the department for approval at least ten business days prior to submission to the franchisee. The rescission offer shall recite the provisions of this section. If the franchise involves a substantial building or substantial equipment or fixtures and a significant period of time has elapsed since the sale of the franchise to the franchisee, the department in approving a rescission offer may approve an equitable offer recognizing depreciation, amortization, and other factors which bear upon the value of the franchise being returned to the franchisor. Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit settlement of any dispute arising under or involving claims based on this chapter, with or without approval of the department.

3. A person who directly or indirectly controls a person liable under this article, a partner in a firm so liable, a principal executive officer or director of a corporation so liable, a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, and an employee of a person so liable, who materially aids in the act of transaction constituting the violation, is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the controlled person, partnership, corporation or employer. It shall be a defense to any action based upon such liability that the defendant did not know or could not have known by the exercise of due diligence the facts upon which the action is predicated.

4. An action shall not be maintained to enforce a liability created under this section unless brought before the expiration of three years after the act or transaction constituting the violation.

5. Except as explicitly provided in this article, civil liability in favor of any private party shall not arise against a person by implication from or as a result of the violation of a provision of this article or a rule, regulation or order hereunder. Nothing in this article shall limit a liability which may exist by virtue of any other statute or under common law if this article were not in effect.

Sec. 692. Enforcement by Attorney General

1. The department may prosecute every person charged with a criminal offense in violation of this article and regulations issued thereunder. In all such proceedings, the department may appear before any court of record or any grand jury and perform all the duties in respect of such actions or proceedings which the district attorney would otherwise be authorized or required to exercise or perform; or the department may in its discretion transmit evidence, proof and information as to such offense to the district attorney of the county or counties in which the alleged violation has occurred, and every district attorney to whom such evidence, proof and information is so transmitted may proceed to investigate and prosecute any person charged with such violation. In any such proceeding wherein the department has appeared, the district attorney shall only exercise such powers and perform such duties as are required of him by the department.

2. Upon a showing by the department that a fraudulent practice as defined by this article has occurred, the department may include in an action under this article an application to direct restitution of any moneys or property obtained directly or indirectly by any such fraudulent practice.

Sec. 693. Immunity

Upon any investigation or proceeding before the department, or in any criminal proceeding before any court or grand jury, pursuant to or for a violation of any provision of this article, the department or the court or grand jury may confer immunity in accordance with the applicable provisions of the criminal procedure law.

Sec. 694. Administration

~~1. The department shall charge and collect the fees fixed by this section.~~

~~(a) The fee for filing an application for registration of an offering prospectus under subdivision two of section six hundred eighty-three of this article is seven hundred fifty dollars.~~
